JACK YOUNG MAY DEFEAT TABY TOSA

Baker's Horse Looks Best in Feature Event at Fair Grounds Track.

BRADWARLIN TO WIN FIRST.

Hayes Younster Appears Capable of Landing Long End of Purse-Strathmore a Possibility.

Although Taby Tosa, Jack Young, Harmakis and Old Stone have met in turf battles before to-day, it would seem that the state of the track this afternoon. should cut more figure in the final result than the outcome of previous meetings. On an extremely soft and slushy track

HARMAKIS'S RUSH WON THE FEATURE

O'Neall and Egan Colt Put Up Desperate Finish in Six-Furlong Handicap and Beat His Two Contenders.

In spite of slushy going, three favorites won at the Fair Grounds yesterday— Yada, Harmakis and Pierce J.-all first choices in the betting, capturing the long end of the purses in their respective events.

Harmakis ran a creditable race in the day's feature, and bent Autumn Leaves by a short neck. As usual, that unfortunate mare was nipped in the last few strides just when she seemed likely to win. Coming with a strong rush at the end, Harmakis won the race in the closing strides. The proverbial uncertainty of outcome in three and four horse races gave to every bettor in this event cause for selfcongratulation at some period or other. Even those who played Bugier at a long price had the brief satisfaction of seeing the Hayes colt make a good bluff in the first quarter, only to drop behind when the real racing commenced. Old-Stone went to the front when the gate was snapped and ploughed through the mud in commanding style. For the first Harmakis could hardly be denied. On a fast course, Taby Tosa and Old Stone should fight it out. But on the track likely to prevail to-day, when the going should be lumpy and sticky only in patches, it looks as if Jack Young had the call.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Boston, Muss., Aug. 22-The Champions established a record for this city to-day when they shut out St. Louis twice. In eighteen innings not one of the visitors got as far as third. The first game was 8 to 0 and the second game 2 to 0. So great was the throng that it swarmed all over the bleachers and into the field, and a long hit went for three bags, as it proved to the advantage of Boston.

More than the usual interest hinged on to-day's battles. St. Louis went first to the field, with nine victories to its credit against seven for Boston, and the result has been to bring them up neck and neck, with to-morrow for the rubber.

In the first centest "Farmer" Young did the honors for the locals and Glade was sent in to try his old trick of hynotism upon Boston. Sometimes the spirits work, ometimes they don't. This was one of the times when they didn't, for Glade had evidently left his wand by the sad sea waves Sunday. The first inning for each side was productive of nothing, two free trips to Boston being nonnegotiable. CLINCHED IN THIRD.

In the second, after the Browns had fallen in order, Ferris and Criger singled, but the powder was wasted. Things went humming in the third finning, for Boston clinched the game all right. A row of singles that tore the breathing apparatus out of Glade netted three runs, with the aid of a sacrifice, and the visiting box artist may shake hands with himself over the fact that he had a fast infield or he would have been further in the hole.

It was enough for him, however, and Hynes was called to steer the ship, Hemphill going to right. The change was beneficial for an inning. The fifth produced singles by Stahl and Freeman, which, with Burkett's muff, netted a run. "Hohe Ferris made the circuit in the sixth, but in the eighth was a heart-tearer. A free trip in the midst of three safeties and a miscue by Heidrick produced three runs and made the total eight.

In the whole journey Young was found seven times, but only twice was second reached, in the fourth on Jones's double and in the fifth when two singles came in succession. The score:

There was only one chapter to the sec and game. Boston furnished the heavy villain and St. Louis was the babe in the voods. It was thought that Howell might be able to bring an even break, but his deliberate pitching was no more effective than that of the one who had walked the plank ahead of him. He kept down the runs, to be sure, but as long as the heavy hitters of his own side could not help win they might as well have been in the moon. Gibson was as steady as a rock, not only fielding his position to the queen's taste, but keeping the hits to three, no two of them coming together, and one of these charged by some scorers as an error against Collins. Neither pitcher gave a pass, but Howell hit Stahl, though nothing was lost by it.

pass, but Howell hit Stahl, though nothing was lost by it.

On Lacianne's triple in the second inning, and a put out, the big first baseman scored. A single by Schach followed by a sacrifice and Stahl's hit made the total two in the third. Stahl came to time with a triple in the sixth and was over ona wild pitch. Ferris drove out a three-sacker in the seventh inning, but Howell put on steam and struck out the next two men.

The Lindell Hotels defeated the Hartfords Samley by the score of 5 to 2. For games with the winners address J. Donahue, No. 203 Macison stream and Thomburghs defeated the Washington, Mo. team Sunday by the score of 1 to 2.

Only one St. Louis runner got to second and that was O'Connor, and there was universal surprise at this slump. Of the visitors, Wallace, Heidrick, Padden and Burkett did the lion's share of the work, while the brunt of the day for Boston fell on Ferris, Parent, Collins and Lachance, outside of the hatteries.
